

I am writing in reference to LPFM station proposal changes and threat to established translator station i. e. K Love and similar stations. In our area low power FM would cause more band crowding and be a threat to established K Love station out of Monticello FL. This station meets the local needs of Christians and non-Christians as well as covering local area emergency coverage and serves our surrounding 'Big Bend' area and we don't want to lose it. Thank you